Tailwind Airlines Information Security Policy ;

- To protect the individual and information
- To determine the responsibilities expected from the user, system administrators, management and security personnel,
- To determine the authorities of Information Security personnel, and to prevent unauthorized access,
- To manage the Information Security risks,
- To ensure the confidentiality, integrity and accessibility of the information assets,
- To follow-up the compliance with the legal requirements,
- To protect and continuously improve the information security level with the control infrastructure established.